

Anticipation Guide

Lottery Rose by Irene Hunt

Instructions: Mark your opinion about the following statements with “Agree” (A) or “Disagree” (D). Then, after we have read chapter three, mark what the author believes about the statements.

You Author

- | | | |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Parents always do what is right for their children. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | People have a reason to be angry at their children sometimes. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | All people are loving and giving. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Kids tell the facts like they see them, even if they unintentionally hurt someone. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | If someone does something against you, you have the right to hate them. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | If someone does something good for you, you should like them. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | When something really bad happens to someone, their life is ruined. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Some people are dumb because they think they are. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Children have no choices in their lives. They do what adults tell them to do. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | If something happens to your friend when you should have been with them, it's your fault. |